English presentations

As part of the Year 6 Prep Diploma, presenting a speech in English lessons is required. The assessment was presenting a PowerPoint based on something that they felt passionately about. Subjects ranged from Emmeline Pankhurst's battle for women's rights and the introduction of artificial intelligence into modern society, to more personal stories of one boy and his dog and a love for a grandad.

Each speech was written with thoughtfulness, insight, and maturity, and every one displayed incredible IT and animation skills. Every child was articulate and confident. Guest judge, Mrs Jones, was not only highly impressed but thoroughly entertained throughout her day of judging.

Well done to all our Year 6 pupils, you should feel incredibly proud of your achievements.

Swimming

Bravely building confidence in the water, Year 1 and 2 have been enjoying their time in the pool this week. In preparation for competitive swimming galas when they move up to Prep, both year groups took part in fun races, practising different strokes. Though it was only for fun, the little ones cheered each other on and were very supportive of one another. All photos can be viewed online.

Year 6 Triathlon

Year 6 held a fun triathlon this week with cycling, running, and swimming, and the chance to win house points. With plenty of determination and good sportsmanship, they cheered one another on as they approached the finish line. Great effort, Year 6!

DT projects

Just in time for half term, Prep pupils finished their various DT projects.

Year 3 designed and made their own robots, Year 4 created bright acrylic desk tidies, and Year 5 made bird feeders complete with a clay roof and wooden frame to hold apples or nut balls.

Year 6 made their own jewellery with a pewter cast pendant. First, they designed and sawed their wooden mould. They melted pewter with a blow torch and poured the pewter into the mould which Mrs Sparkes did for them. Then they worked extremely hard with 'wet and dry' papers to get the pewter to shine. To complete the jewellery piece, Year 6 also hand-crafted wooden boxes with their own designs to keep their pendant in.

This week in Nursery...

Nursery are continuing with 'metamorphosis' and Eric Carle's artistic approach to illustrating his amazing stories, including 'The Hungry Caterpillar'. The German born artist was famous for his use of collage and die cut pages and other original elements. Sadly, this week the author died at the age of 91.

The children had a go at their own display called 'Lifecycle of a Butterfly' echoing the famous story using the same method of artwork, and dedicated it to Eric Carle. Mrs Banks read his amazing stories to hundreds of children over my many years of teaching and has loved watching the children's faces as the story unfolds.

Ballet exams

Well done to our ballerinas who took their exams this week - you all danced brilliantly!

Year 4 transport to Tudor times

Kresen Kernow paid Year 4 a virtual visit this week as part of their history topic, the Tudors.

They learnt about Tudor life in Cornwall and beyond, and were spot on answering questions about Tudor kings and queens. Later, they had a go at writing an inventory list, similar to a will, with a quill and pot of ink.

3rd Truro Cubs welcome new members

3rd Truro Cubs were delighted to welcome so many children to the Tomperrow Scout Campsite on Saturday and give them a taste of cubs. It was a very busy day, we put up (and down) tents every half hour for three hours, lit 42 individual fires and played too many to count games of hide and seek, sardines, and man-hunt in the woods. The day was wrapped up with hot chocolate and toasted marshmallows around the fire. We also had the opportunity to share with many parents the amazing things cubs have done over the last two years since the group started and we look forward to welcome our new volunteers and as many cubs as we can accommodate in September. A massive thank you to the leaders, and of course our cubs who were amazing looking after their 'cublings'. Grainne Riley, Cub Leader

UNICEF and Crowdfunder back Choristers in their bid to 'Give the World a Shot' with VaccinAid

Truro Cathedral Choristers are calling on the public and businesses to help them raise vital funds for VaccinAid, a campaign by UNICEF and Crowdfunder to deliver two billion vaccines worldwide.

The 35 young choristers are leading the worldwide Sing2G7 initiative, which seeks to make children's voices heard with the song 'Gee Seven', ahead of the G7 Summit. So far over 25,000 young voices in 27 different countries have signed up to sing 'Gee Seven,' with lyrics by Sir Tim Rice and music by Peter Hobbs.

The choristers are aware of how vulnerable to Covid many of their fellow young singers around the world are, and the Sing2G7 VaccinAid appeal began as a practical expression of this.

Besides direct donations to their Crowdfunder, the choristers are also donating all the royalties from their single, 'Gee Seven', to the VaccinAid appeal.

The Crowdfunder appeal to raise £5,000 for the VaccinAid campaign to fund UNICEF's work is the choristers' own practical application of the last lines of 'Gee Seven' with their bold challenge to G7 leaders:

Gee Seven – let nation speak to nation
Gee Seven – don't let the others down
Gee Seven – don't forget the not so fortunate
Gee -Seven – or we'll run you out of town

Steven Waugh, Interim Executive Director at the UK Committee for UNICEF (UNICEF UK), said: "UNICEF UK is greatly inspired by the generous amount of time, dedication and passion of the Truro Cathedral Choristers, who are all coming together ahead of at the G7 this June to and raising vital funds to help UNICEF support the biggest vaccine drive in history - safely delivering Covid-19 vaccines around the world, to the people and places that need it most. Their aim of reaching out and uniting children all over the world with their voices while also supporting VaccinAid is something we are incredibly proud to be a part of. Thank you Truro Cathedral Choristers for choosing to support this campaign which will help provide Covid-19 vaccines, tests and treatments to vulnerable communities around the world; your efforts will help transform the lives of many families and children, and ensure equitable access to the vaccine for all".

Everyone can make a difference, even a child. Just because we're children, it doesn't mean we can't make a difference to these things.'

Josh, Chorister

Harris, Chorister said: 'Not every country is so lucky to have lots of vaccines and when older people die there it can leave children without their mums and dads which is very sad. Me and my friends would like it a lot if you could help us to help the world and donate whatever you can and hopefully we can give everyone a shot. Thank you!'

Jacob, Head Chorister, said: 'I can't imagine how worried I'd be if Covid was everywhere, and my mum or dad couldn't get a vaccine. I'd be really scared. That's why I think it's so important that the choir supports VaccinAid'
