6 JULY 2021: TRURO SCHOOL NEWS AND UPDATES

Speech Day

It was with the utmost pleasure that Year 6 pupils, parents and staff welcomed Mr Chris Lubbe as guest speaker at this year's Prep Prize Giving.

An internationally acclaimed inspirational keynote speaker and storyteller, Chris shared his incredible story of resistance against 'apartheid', keeping his audience spell-bound as he took them on a journey of discovery.

In relaying the horrors of Apartheid, Chris explained how he became a freedom fighter and the personal impact of the regime on himself and his family. After Nelson Mandela's release from prison in 1990 and after a chance meeting, Chris was handpicked to be one of his bodyguards.

Chris entertained the audience with many anecdotes of the world leaders and celebrities that he met in his time with Mandela, and how, with the inspiration of Mandela, he eventually learned to reconcile himself with his former enemies and most crucially to forgive those who had tortured him.

With eternal messages of courage, perseverance and the power of forgiveness, Chris captivated the hall, inspiring the audience to make positive choices and positively impact our world.

Chris was joined on the stage by Chair of Governors, Richard Thomas, Truro School Head, Andy Johnson, Head of Prep, Sarah Patterson, Deputy Head of Prep, James Frewer and most importantly, all of our super prize winners.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Head's Commendations

Lois 5JL for English: for a beautifully presented project about seals for the John Muir award.

Jemima 5SL for English: for a beautifully presented and illustrated booklet about seahorses for the John Muir project.

Josephine 5JE for English: for a wild walk for your John Muir award, just like John Muir did himself (but possibly not 1000 miles). We loved your photos and the imaginative quiz about different animals!

Rufus 5JL for English: for a wonderful elderflower tasting session, which the whole class enjoyed. In addition, extremely well presented written work and illustrations in your John Muir book.

Kit 5JE for English: for a brilliantly edited and presented video about a wildlife ramble for the John Muir project.

William 5JE for English: for an amazing project about creating a beach cleaning device for the John Muir project, and for creating the device itself!

Monty 5JL for English: for a brilliant bug hotel. Well-presented work in your John Muir book, featuring a snakes and ladders game about John Muir's life.

Rosie 5JL for English: for a beautiful and detailed project about wildlife on Tresco and the Isles of Scilly for the John Muir project.

Max 5JE for English: for a fascinating and eye-opening presentation for the John Muir project on the importance of algae in helping the environment.

Gabriel 5SL for English: for a super video about the importance of finding calm and peace in woodland for the John Muir project.

Oscar 5JL for English: for a wonderful explanation of your den - including written work and illustrations about den building in your John Muir book. We enjoyed your presentation, featuring photos of your own den at home!

Reggie 5JE for English: Reggie has produced a wonderful booklet of his activities inspired by John Muir, including pictures of his garden camp and beautifully pressed and identified flowers.

Head's Commendations

Thomas 5JL for English: Inspired by John Muir, Thomas wrote a beautiful poem full of poetic devices such as alliteration, similes and personification.

Sanna 5JL for English: Sanna has worked with great application with her ideas for her John Muir project. A particularly fantastic piece was her beautiful map of the Scilly Isles.

Dan 5JE for English: Dan has worked really hard with his booklet inspired by John Muir, producing some super descriptive and creative pieces.
