Established in 1880, Truro School is Cornwall's leading independent schools for girls and boys aged 3 to 18

From Kieran Topping Business Director

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the role of Kitchen Porter here at Truro School.

We are seeking a hardworking, customer focused, friendly team player, to join our Facilities team. This important role is responsible for driving pupils to and from School on a daily basis during term time and, occasionally, driving pupils and staff on trips/excursions.

Our desired candidate must be flexible, have good communication skills and be capable of driving minibuses or vans with the appropriate licence.

Truro School is steeped in 140 years of history, and is Cornwall's leading independent school for girls and boys aged 3-18. The School is situated over two campuses, the Senior School is set within 40 acres of sports fields and open spaces overlooking Truro and its iconic Cathedral, and a vibrant Prep School located next to the Royal Cornwall Hospital. We have superb facilities and resources at both sites that support our forward-looking educational environment.

To give you a flavour of life here at Truro School please take a look around our website www.truroschoo.com and take a moment to watch our virtual tour where you will see and hear from our staff and students and get a glimpse of our beautiful environs.

Truro School is an "excellent¹" school seeking "excellent" people to join our staff team and help us deliver a broad and balanced education to our enthusiastic children here in the beautiful county of Cornwall.

Kieran Topping

Business Director

This job description sets out current duties of the post that may vary from time-to-time without changing the general character of the post or the level of responsibility entailed.

Truro School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening including checks with past employers and a Disclosure and Barring Service check. We embrace diversity and promote equality of opportunity. We welcome applications from all sections of the community.

Our Motto

Esse Quam Videri, meaning 'to be, rather than to seem to be.'

Founded by Methodists in Cornwall in 1880 our School is a welcoming community in which children and adults can flourish, thrive and be happy. They enjoy being and becoming the very best of themselves.

Our Values

From nursery through to Sixth Form, the values our community nurtures are:

- Curiosity to always want to discover and learn more, academically and more widely too.
- Confidence to build resilience by learning from both successes and failures alike.
- Compassion to understand and champion the needs of others, in our community and beyond.
- Creativity to be imaginative in how we express ourselves and approach new challenges.
- Courage to enjoy becoming the very best of who we are, with integrity and ambition.

Our Ambition

To be a community of inclusion and excellence delivering the best educational journey in the South-West.

Our community and its culture reflect our Methodist foundation and our ongoing evolution in an inspiring Cornish setting. In an ever-changing world, we support and challenge young people to thrive – personally, spiritually, academically, socially, and physically. We value our pupils in the diversity of their identities, beliefs, abilities, talents, interests, backgrounds, and needs. The happiness, energy and wellbeing of our community shapes and inspires who we are and who we can become.

Academic Life

Many of our pupils at Truro School celebrate exceptional results as they prepare to move on to the next stage of their lives, education and career. Our Upper Sixth pupils enjoy places at some of the best universities in the world including Oxford, Cambridge, and a range of Russell group universities.

Two thirds of GCSE and iGCSE grades in 2021 awarded were 9-7 (or A*/A), with a 28% at grade 9.

In the same year, we were pleased to report 74% of A-Levels were graded A*/A. Furthermore, 89% of all A-Level grades were graded at A*-B, with a 100% pass rate.

Computer Science, Drama, English Literature, Further Maths, Geology, German, Music, and Religious Studies all received 100% A*-A grades, with Economics, French, Geography and History, all gaining 100% A*-B.

The Co-Curriculum

We believe that a rich co-curricular life is a key ingredient of an excellent education. Whilst having fun, participating in a wide range of activities, without academic pressures, pupils broaden their horizons and learn a new skill or extend existing skills. This develops confidence, self-esteem, teamwork and independent-thinking, communication skills and social development across all year groups.

Our aim is for every Truro School student to leave us with a breadth of knowledge, understanding and a desire to continue with their selected passion. We encourage students to try a variety of activities, to embrace challenge, success and failure in order to grow.

SPORT

Truro School has an enviable reputation for the high quality of its sporting provision. Several teams compete nationally and the School hosts elite sportsman in the fields of windsurfing, fencing and sailing to name but a few. All abilities are catered for and every student is encouraged to participate in order to maintain a healthy lifestyle.

MUSIC

Truro School is one of the most busy and vibrant music departments in the country and is home to the Truro Cathedral choristers. Music is evident in all year groups with over 60 concerts each year involving our ensembles, choirs and bands. Tuition is available for numerous instruments including cello, violin, flute, clarinet, saxophone, drums. Over a third of our school undertake instrumental or vocal lessons each week from 30 of the county's top specialist teachers.

Major events each term include the annual Hall for Cornwall Concert, the Junior and Senior Charity Concerts, jazz band and Nine Lessons and Carols.

DRAMA

Truro School is renowned for the quality of its drama productions which are held in our professional Burrell Theatre. The school runs a number of major productions throughout the year including the annual whole school play or musical, an annual sixth form drama project (including performing at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival every two years) and the junior play in the summer term.

CORNWALL

Truro School is located in the county of Cornwall, in south west England. It is surrounded almost exclusively by water which makes it ideal for those who love to spend their downtime at the beach, surfing, sailing, windsurfing or just enjoying a coastal walk. With the nearest beach only a 15-20 minute drive either north or south from Truro School, it is most certainly a life style choice of many. Take a look at www.visitcornwall.com for more information about how to get here, where to stay and what's on.
