Established in 1880, Truro School is Cornwall's leading independent schools for girls and boys aged 3 to 18

From Kieran Topping Chief Operating Officer

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the role of Deputy Head and Academic Team Administrator at Truro School.

Our School is steeped in 140 years of history, and is Cornwall's leading coeducational independent school for children aged 3-18. We are situated over two campuses. The Senior School educates around 840 pupils and is set within 40 acres of sports fields and open spaces overlooking Truro and its iconic Cathedral. The Prep School educates around 300 pupils and is located next to the Royal Cornwall Hospital. We have superb facilities and resources at both sites that support our forward-looking educational ambitions.

Our Cornish setting allows us the privilege of working in a thriving city surrounded by beautiful rural and coastal opportunities. Our educational philosophy is to promote inclusive excellence, academically, pastorally and via a vibrant co-curriculum, for all who join our school.

Underpinned by a welcoming and liberal Methodist ethos, we champion the values of curiosity, courage, creativity, compassion and confidence in all we do. We want all our pupils to be and to become the very best of themselves, embracing the richness of a broad and forward-thinking education. We want our staff to be excited by what we are able to provide for the children under our care.

We are an "excellent"¹ co-educational school that is large enough to offer many diverse and exciting opportunities, but small enough to know our children and families well. We champion an ambitious, broad and balanced education, and we hope that everybody who joins us will feel an important part of this flourishing community.

For a flavour of life here at Truro School please look at our website www.truroschoo.com and view our virtual tour, where you will see and hear from staff and pupils, and find a glimpse of who we are and where we work.

Job Description: Deputy Head and Academic Team Administrator

ACCOUNTABLE TO:

Deputy Head (Academic)

GRADE:

NT3 on the Operations, Professional and Support (OPS) Staff Salary Scales

ROLE OVERVIEW:

Truro School is a highly successful academic institution with value added for outcomes at both Key stage 4 and 5 well above national average. This exciting role is instrumental in supporting the Deputy Head (Academic) and wider Academic Leadership team in the planning, preparing and evaluating of the academic offering to ensure that school processes are run accurately and efficiently. The wider academic team includes the Assistant Head (Director of Studies) and Assistant Head (Teaching and Learning) and Assistant Head (CPL).

The post holder will support the Deputy Head (Academic) in a range of administrative duties. The post holder will further support the Deputy Head (Academic) and the wider academic leadership team in all processes within the School's Self Evaluation and Appraisal cycle. This position requires someone who is professional, proactive, organised, has strong attention to detail, a good sense of humour and is driven to provide a high level of customer service.

KEY FUNCTIONS:

Administration

- Point of contact for parents, pupils and outside organisations, directing enquiries to the relevant staff member.
- Arranging appointments and meetings for the Academic Team.
- Further Support with diary and inbox management for the Deputy Head (Academic)
- Administering and managing academic databases and spreadsheets of monitoring systems such as completion of teacher appraisal paperwork, and other documents in the school evaluation cycle such as work scrutiny, exam analysis reports and pupil surveys.
- Administration and collation of departmental documentation such as Health and safety cycle documentation
- Liaise with parents and students as and when directed.
- 'SchoolCloud' parent meeting software administration including liaison with teachers and Heads of year and all aspects in the arrangement of parents' evenings.
- Attend Head of Department and Academic leadership team meetings, take and distribute minutes and maintain the action logs.
- Support with communications to other stakeholders, as directed.
- Support in preparation for special school events such as academic enrichment days, public exam results days etc.
- Support the Deputy Head (Academic), Exams team and Admissions with the baseline testing of pupils.
- Attend other School meetings, as required, with advance notice.
- Support the Deputy Head (Academic) in compiling and monitoring the academic budget.

PERSON SPECIFICATION:

Essential

- Excellent administrative and organisational skills
- A natural team player
- Evidence of strong attention to detail and high standards
- Evidence of good verbal and written communication skills
- Proven ability to work to tight deadlines and changing priorities
- Experience of working calmly under pressure
- Good working knowledge and experience of Microsoft Office software applications, in particular Excel spreadsheets and Word
- Sensitive to the Methodist ethos and traditions of the School

Desirable

- Experience of a busy environment / school
- Experience of Sims, although training will be provided
- General appreciation of developing every child's passions and talents
- Experience of working with young people
- Experience of using Publisher – mainly for poster design

ADDITIONAL

- Truro School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment and behave accordingly. Although there is no direct responsibility for children, this role will involve daily contact with students.
- This job description sets out current duties of the post that may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the post or the level of responsibility entailed.

Truro School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening including checks with past employers and a Disclosure and Barring Service check.

We embrace diversity and promote equality of opportunity. We welcome applications from all sections of the community.

Our Motto

Esse Quam Videri, meaning 'to be, rather than to seem to be.'

Founded by Methodists in Cornwall in 1880 our School is a welcoming community in which children and adults can flourish, thrive and be happy. They enjoy being and becoming the very best of themselves.

Our Values

From nursery through to Sixth Form, the values our community nurtures are:

- Curiosity to always want to discover and learn more, academically and more widely too.
- Confidence to build resilience by learning from both successes and failures alike.
- Compassion to understand and champion the needs of others, in our community and beyond.
- Creativity to be imaginative in how we express ourselves and approach new challenges.
- Courage to enjoy becoming the very best of who we are, with integrity and ambition.

Our Ambition

To be a community of inclusion and excellence delivering the best educational journey in the South-West.

Our community and its culture reflect our Methodist foundation and our ongoing evolution in an inspiring Cornish setting. In an ever-changing world, we support and challenge young people to thrive – personally, spiritually, academically, socially, and physically. We value our pupils in the diversity of their identities, beliefs, abilities, talents, interests, backgrounds, and needs. The happiness, energy and wellbeing of our community shapes and inspires who we are and who we can become.

Academic Life

Many of our pupils at Truro School celebrate exceptional results as they prepare to move on to the next stage of their lives, education and career. Our Upper Sixth pupils enjoy places at some of the best universities in the world including Oxford, Cambridge, and a range of Russell group and international universities.

52% of GCSE and iGCSE grades in 2024 awarded were 9-7 (or A*/A), with 17% at grade 9.

In the same year, we were pleased to report 45% of A-Levels were graded A*/A. Furthermore, 74 % of all A-Level grades were graded at A*-B. In 2023, we were the leading provider of A Levels in Cornwall in terms of pupils achieving AAB or above in two facilitating subjects and in 2024 outcomes in this parameter are even higher.

The Co-Curriculum

We believe that a rich co-curricular life is a key ingredient of an excellent education. Whilst having fun, participating in a wide range of activities, without academic pressures, pupils broaden their horizons and learn a new skill or extend existing skills. This develops confidence, self-esteem, teamwork and independent-thinking, communication skills and social development across all year groups.

Our aim is for every Truro School student to leave us with a breadth of knowledge, understanding and a desire to continue with their selected passion. We encourage students to try a variety of activities, to embrace challenge, success and failure in order to grow.

Sport

Truro School has an enviable reputation for the high quality of its sporting provision. Several teams compete nationally and the School hosts elite sportsman in the fields of windsurfing, fencing and sailing to name but a few. All abilities are catered for and every student is encouraged to participate in order to maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Music

Truro School is one of the most busy and vibrant music departments in the country and is home to the Truro Cathedral choristers. Music is evident in all year groups with over 60 concerts each year involving our ensembles, choirs and bands. Tuition is available for numerous instruments including cello, violin, flute, clarinet, saxophone, drums. Over a third of our school undertake instrumental or vocal lessons each week from 30 of the county's top specialist teachers.

Major events each term include the annual Hall for Cornwall Concert, the Junior and Senior Charity Concerts, jazz band and Nine Lessons and Carols.

Drama

Truro School is renowned for the quality of its drama productions which are held in our professional Burrell Theatre. The school runs a number of major productions throughout the year including the annual whole school play or musical, an annual sixth form drama project (including performing at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival every two years) and the junior play in the summer term.
