Established in 1880, Truro School is Cornwall's leading independent schools for girls and boys aged 3 to 18

From Kieran Topping

Chief Operating Officer

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the role of a Carpenter here at Truro School Prep and Senior.

Our School is steeped in 140 years of history, and is Cornwall's leading coeducational independent school for children aged 3-18. We are situated over two campuses. The Senior School educates around 840 pupils and is set within 40 acres of sports fields and open spaces overlooking Truro and its iconic Cathedral. The Prep School educates around 300 pupils and is located next to the Royal Cornwall Hospital. We have superb facilities and resources at both sites that support our forward-looking educational ambitions.

Our Cornish setting allows us the privilege of working in a thriving city surrounded by beautiful rural and coastal opportunities. Our educational philosophy is to promote inclusive excellence, academically, pastorally and via a vibrant co-curriculum, for all who join our school.

Underpinned by a welcoming and liberal Methodist ethos, we champion the values of curiosity, courage, creativity, compassion and confidence in all we do. We want all our pupils to be and to become the very best of themselves, embracing the richness of a broad and forward-thinking education. We want our staff to be excited by what we are able to provide for the children under our care.

We are an "excellent¹" co-educational school that is large enough to offer many diverse and exciting opportunities, but small enough to know our children and families well. We champion an ambitious, broad and balanced education, and we hope that everybody who joins us will feel an important part of this flourishing community.

For a flavour of life here at Truro School please look at our website www.truroschool.com and view our virtual tour, where you will see and hear from staff and pupils, and find a glimpse of who we are and where we work.

Job Description: Carpenter

ACCOUNTABLE TO:

Senior Tradesperson

GRADE:

NT4 on the Non-Teaching Salary Scales

ROLE OVERVIEW:

To be an integral and key member of the maintenance staff, jointly responsible for the maintenance and improvement of the School's woodwork, carpentry and associated equipment. To repair and renew without supervision the carpentry related fixtures and fittings within the School.

KEY FUNCTIONS:

- To work predominately within the Estates maintenance team
- To receive oral or written instruction for each job or project and to investigate the site where this is to be carried out
- To ascertain the materials required and to request these from the Senior Tradesperson
- To discuss and make arrangements with the appropriate departmental staff for carrying out the job or task
- To ascertain the exact specifications for the job possibly by discussion with the Senior Tradesperson and from working drawings or plans
- To refer any problems to the Senior Tradesperson
- To carry out carpentry work, sometimes without any formal specifications or plans; the job holder may be required to create the design or specification themselves
- Measure, cut, or shape wood, plastic, and other materials
- Construct building frameworks, including partition walls, floor and roof joists, roof timbers, staircases and shuttering
- Install structures and fixtures, such as floor boards, skirting boards, window frames, windows doorframes and doors
- Install cabinets, cupboards, shelving, door handles, locks and other fixtures and fittings
- Construct furniture such as storage racking, cabinets, and benches
- Inspect and replace damaged framework or other structures and fixtures
- Service door and window locks, to include setting codes
- Operate and maintain various power and manual tools
- Clean up job site after work and return equipment and tools
- Maintain a clean work environment
- To ensure that health and safety related paperwork is in place for each job or project they are working on, ie, method statements, risk assessments, permits to work, etc
- To carry out some routine health and safety inspections and record their findings
- To undertake general maintenance tasks and assist other staff within the Estates department when required
- To undertake urgent tasks as they arise, this may involve the post holder carrying out this work
- To assist with the training and supervision of less experienced staff when required
- To use all equipment and materials in accordance with health and safety guidelines, wearing appropriate PPE when necessary
- To ensure that tools and equipment are kept in good order and report any faulty tools or equipment to the Senior Tradesperson

- To assist, guide or oversee some non-school personnel whilst on site, these may include contractors, inspectors or any other personnel that the Senior Tradesperson requires.
- To work with the maintenance and caretaking team on tasks other than carpentry work as requested.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Essential Criteria

- Served and completed an apprenticeship and gained a City & Guilds or NVQ qualification in Carpentry or Joinery (or EU equivalent)

- Up to date Scaffolding and/or Mobile Access Platform Certificate

ADDITIONAL

- Truro School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment and behave accordingly. Although there is no direct responsibility for children, this role will involve daily contact with pupils.
- This job description sets out current duties of the post that may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the post or the level of responsibility entailed.

Truro School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening including checks with past employers and a Disclosure and Barring Service check.

We embrace diversity and promote equality of opportunity. We welcome applications from all sections of the community.

Our Motto

Esse Quam Videri, meaning 'to be, rather than to seem to be.'

Founded by Methodists in Cornwall in 1880 our School is a welcoming community in which children and adults can flourish, thrive and be happy. They enjoy being and becoming the very best of themselves.

Our Values

From nursery through to Sixth Form, the values our community nurtures are:

- Curiosity to always want to discover and learn more, academically and more widely too.
- Confidence to build resilience by learning from both successes and failures alike.
- Compassion to understand and champion the needs of others, in our community and beyond.
- Creativity to be imaginative in how we express ourselves and approach new challenges.
- Courage to enjoy becoming the very best of who we are, with integrity and ambition.

Our Ambition

To be a community of inclusion and excellence delivering the best educational journey in the South-West.

Our community and its culture reflect our Methodist foundation and our ongoing evolution in an inspiring Cornish setting. In an ever-changing world, we support and challenge young people to thrive – personally, spiritually, academically, socially, and physically. We value our pupils in the diversity of their identities, beliefs, abilities, talents, interests, backgrounds, and needs. The happiness, energy and wellbeing of our community shapes and inspires who we are and who we can become.

Academic Life

Many of our pupils at Truro School celebrate exceptional results as they prepare to move on to the next stage of their lives, education and career. Our Upper Sixth pupils enjoy places at some of the best universities in the world including Oxford, Cambridge, and a range of Russell group and international universities.

47% of GCSE and iGCSE grades in 2025 awarded were 9-7 (or A*/A), with 15% at grade 9.

In the same year, we were pleased to report 50% of A-Levels were graded A*/A. Furthermore, 80 % of all A-Level grades were graded at A*-B. In 2024, we were the leading provider of A Levels in Cornwall in terms of pupils achieving AAB or above in two facilitating subjects and in 2025 outcomes in this parameter are even higher.

The Co-Curriculum

We believe that a rich co-curricular life is a key ingredient of an excellent education. Whilst having fun, participating in a wide range of activities, without academic pressures, pupils broaden their horizons and learn a new skill or extend existing skills. This develops confidence, self-esteem, teamwork and independent-thinking, communication skills and social development across all year groups. Our aim is for every Truro School student to leave us with a breadth of knowledge, understanding and a desire to continue with their selected passion. We encourage students to try a variety of activities, to embrace challenge, success and failure in order to grow.

Sport

Truro School has an enviable reputation for the high quality of its sporting provision. Several teams compete nationally and the School hosts elite sportsmen in the fields of windsurfing, fencing and sailing to name but a few. All abilities are catered for and every student is encouraged to participate in order to maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Music

Truro School is one of the most busy and vibrant music departments in the country and is home to the Truro Cathedral choristers. Music is evident in all year groups with over 60 concerts each year involving our ensembles, choirs and bands. Tuition is available for numerous instruments including cello, violin, flute, clarinet, saxophone, drums. Over a third of our school undertake instrumental or vocal lessons each week from 30 of the county's top specialist teachers.

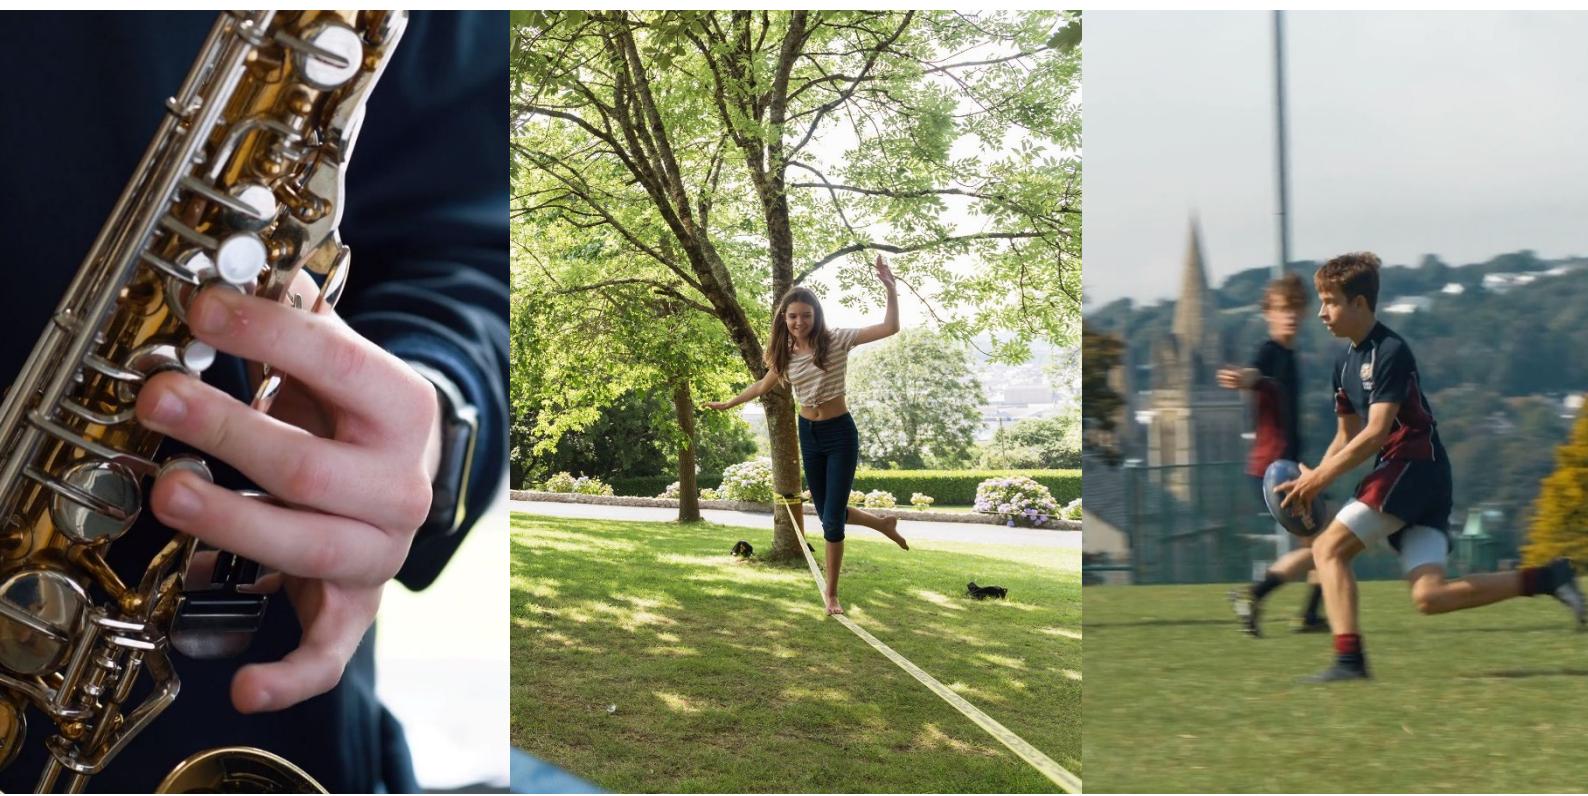

Major events each term include the annual Hall for Cornwall Concert, the Junior and Senior Charity Concerts, jazz band and Nine Lessons and Carols.

Drama

Truro School is renowned for the quality of its drama productions which are held in our professional Burrell Theatre. The school runs a number of major productions throughout the year including the annual whole school play or musical, an annual sixth form drama project (including performing at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival every two years) and the junior play in the summer term.

Cornwall

Truro School is located in the county of Cornwall, in south west England. It is surrounded almost exclusively by water which makes it ideal for those who love to spend their downtime at the beach, surfing, sailing, windsurfing or just enjoying a coastal walk. With the nearest beach only a 15-20 minute drive either north or south from Truro School, it is most certainly a life style choice of many. Take a look at www.visitcornwall.com for more information about how to get here, where to stay and what's on.
