From Rob Morse, Head of Prep

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the role of Teacher of English here at Truro School Prep.

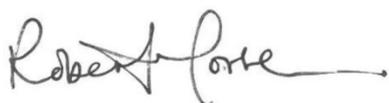

Our School is steeped in 140 years of history, and is Cornwall's leading coeducational independent school for children aged 3-18. We are situated over two campuses. The Senior School educates around 840 pupils and is set within 40 acres of sports fields and open spaces overlooking Truro and its iconic Cathedral. The Prep School educates around 300 pupils and is located next to the Royal Cornwall Hospital and Truro Golf Club. We have superb facilities and resources at both sites that support our forward-looking educational ambitions.

Our Cornish setting allows us the privilege of working in a thriving city surrounded by beautiful rural and coastal opportunities. Our educational philosophy is to promote inclusive excellence, academically, pastorally and via a vibrant co-curriculum, for all who join our school.

Underpinned by a welcoming and liberal Methodist ethos, we champion the values of curiosity, courage, creativity, compassion and confidence in all we do. We want all our pupils to be and to become the very best of themselves, embracing the richness of a broad and forward-thinking education. We want our staff to be excited by what we are able to provide for the children under our care.

We are an excellent co-educational school that is large enough to offer many diverse and exciting opportunities, but small enough to know our children and families well. We champion an ambitious, broad and balanced education, and we hope that everybody who joins us will feel an important part of this flourishing community.

For a flavour of life here at Truro School please look at our website www.truroschoo.com and view our virtual tour, where you will see and hear from staff and pupils, and find a glimpse of who we are and where we work.

From nursery through to Sixth Form, the values our community nurtures are:

Truro School Prep

Truro School is the only HMC School in the beautiful duchy of Cornwall and a member of MIST (The Methodist Independent Schools' Trust). It was originally a Direct Grant Boys' Grammar School but became independent in 1976 and fully co-educational in 1990. Truro School Prep (Treliske School until September 2005) was opened in 1936 as the Junior Department to Truro School. It is a member of the IAPS (Independent Association of Prep Schools). Though, like the Senior School, Treliske was originally a boys' school, it became co-educational in 1989. A Pre-Prep Department was opened in 1991. Truro School Prep is beautifully situated on its own separate campus, between the Royal Cornwall Hospital and Truro Golf Club.

Truro School Prep will end this academic year with 285 pupils between the ages of 3 and 11. Children in Year 6 work towards the Prep School Diploma and the school prides itself on having a broad and balanced curriculum. Each year at least 95% of Year 6 (c50 pupils) proceed into Year 7 at the Senior School. Parents like to commit to the through-school 'family' and a large proportion of parents have more than one child across the School. The social life of the School is therefore an important feature of its ethos. At our Senior School there are currently c800 pupils, including a Sixth Form of around 150. In the Senior School there are also 40-50 boarders, national and international. There is no boarding at Truro School Prep. Day pupils travel from throughout the county to our School, including some on the school buses.

Ongoing investment in our site is important to us. At Truro Prep in 2018 we opened a new suite of six additional purpose-built classrooms; a music room and the Lovett Assembly Hall. Even more recent developments include a refurbished and refitted computer suite, a tree house, and a remodelling of the annexe that houses the educational support rooms and a research room that supports the work of the library.

Cornwall

Truro School is located in the county of Cornwall, in south-west England. It is surrounded almost exclusively by water which makes it ideal for those who love to spend their downtime at the beach, surfing, sailing, windsurfing or just enjoying a coastal walk. With the nearest beach only a 15-20 minute drive either north or south from Truro School, it is most certainly a life style choice of many. Take a look at www.visitcornwall.com for more information about how to get here, where to stay and what's on.
