Established in 1880, Truro School is Cornwall's leading independent schools for girls and boys aged 3 to 18

From Kieran Topping Chief Operating Officer

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the role of a Football Coach here at Truro School.

Our School is steeped in 140 years of history, and is Cornwall's leading coeducational independent school for children aged 3-18. We are situated over two campuses. The Senior School educates around 840 pupils and is set within 40 acres of sports fields and open spaces overlooking Truro and its iconic Cathedral. The Prep School educates around 300 pupils and is located next to the Royal Cornwall Hospital. We have superb facilities and resources at both sites that support our forward-looking educational ambitions.

Our Cornish setting allows us the privilege of working in a thriving city surrounded by beautiful rural and coastal opportunities. Our educational philosophy is to promote inclusive excellence, academically, pastorally and via a vibrant co-curriculum, for all who join our school.

Underpinned by a welcoming and liberal Methodist ethos, we champion the values of curiosity, courage, creativity, compassion and confidence in all we do. We want all our pupils to be and to become the very best of themselves, embracing the richness of a broad and forward-thinking education. We want our staff to be excited by what we are able to provide for the children under our care.

We are an excellent co-educational school that is large enough to offer many diverse and exciting opportunities, but small enough to know our children and families well. We champion an ambitious, broad and balanced education, and we hope that everybody who joins us will feel an important part of this flourishing community.

For a flavour of life here at Truro School please look at our website www.truroschoo.com and view our virtual tour, where you will see and hear from staff and pupils, and find a glimpse of who we are and where we work.

Job Description: Football Coach

ACCOUNTABLE TO:

Director of Sport

GRADE:

NT4 on the Operations, Professional and Support (OPS) Staff Salary Scales

CORE PURPOSE:

This is an exciting opportunity to join our thriving PE and Sport Department as a Football Coach. We have a strong team culture and a busy programme of training, fixtures and co-curricular activities throughout the week and at weekends. At Truro School, we are committed to providing pupils with high quality sporting opportunities that support both participation and performance.

With excellent facilities and strong pupil engagement, football plays an important role within our sporting provision. The Football Coach will work closely with teaching staff and the wider Sports Department to deliver an outstanding coaching programme, supporting the development of players across a range of age groups and abilities. The role will involve leading football sessions, supporting fixtures and competitions, and contributing positively to the wider sporting life of the School

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Work alongside the PE Department, supporting and assisting with games lessons as required.
- Plan and deliver engaging, progressive and inclusive football coaching sessions for pupils of varying ages and abilities.
- Support the development and growth of football within the School in line with the department's strategic objectives.
- Assist with the organisation and delivery of fixtures, festivals, tournaments and related administrative tasks.
- Take responsibility for coaching school football teams during the week and at weekends as required.
- Work closely with the Director of Sport to provide appropriate development opportunities for all players.
- Contribute to the successful delivery of the co-curricular sports programme, including lunchtime and after-school activities.
- Support the promotion of sporting achievements through departmental communications and social media channels.
- Ensure compliance with all safeguarding, health and safety, and school policies and procedures.
- Communicate effectively with pupils, parents and colleagues.
- Support pupils by attending fixtures, events and competitions when required.
- Demonstrate initiative and contribute positively to the ongoing development of sport within the School.

PERSON SPECIFICATION:

Essential

- Relevant degree of equivalent qualification

- At least 1 level 2 qualification from the relevant national governing body in a team sport. (Level 1 qualifications will also be considered alongside significant coaching experience)
- Excellent working knowledge of a team sport – technical, tactical and physical
- Positive attitude with energy and enthusiasm
- The ability to inspire confidence and motivate pupils
- Perseverance, patience and adaptable
- Strong organisational skills and communication skills
- The ability to encourage individuals and put them at ease
- Passion for all sports
- Demonstrate innovative training techniques
- Enjoy working within a team

Desirable

- UEFA B Licence in Football (or working towards).
- Experience coaching within a school, academy or club environment.
- Experience of managing fixtures, player development programmes and football events.

ADDITIONAL

- Truro School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment, and behave accordingly. Although there is no direct responsibility for children, this role will involve daily contact with students
- This job description sets out the duties of this new post that may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the post or the level of responsibility entailed.

Truro School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening including checks with past employers and a Disclosure and Barring Service check. We embrace diversity and promote equality of opportunity. We welcome applications from all sections of the community.

Our Motto

Esse Quam Videri, meaning 'to be, rather than to seem to be.'

Founded by Methodists in Cornwall in 1880 our School is a welcoming community in which children and adults can flourish, thrive and be happy. They enjoy being and becoming the very best of themselves.

Our Values

From nursery through to Sixth Form, the values our community nurtures are:

- Curiosity to always want to discover and learn more, academically and more widely too.
- Confidence to build resilience by learning from both successes and failures alike.
- Compassion to understand and champion the needs of others, in our community and beyond.
- Creativity to be imaginative in how we express ourselves and approach new challenges.
- Courage to enjoy becoming the very best of who we are, with integrity and ambition.

Our Ambition

To be a community of inclusion and excellence delivering the best educational journey in the South-West.

Our community and its culture reflect our Methodist foundation and our ongoing evolution in an inspiring Cornish setting. In an ever-changing world, we support and challenge young people to thrive – personally, spiritually, academically, socially, and physically. We value our pupils in the diversity of their identities, beliefs, abilities, talents, interests, backgrounds, and needs. The happiness, energy and wellbeing of our community shapes and inspires who we are and who we can become.

Academic Life

Many of our pupils at Truro School celebrate exceptional results as they prepare to move on to the next stage of their lives, education and career. Our Upper Sixth pupils enjoy places at some of the best universities in the world including Oxford, Cambridge, and a range of Russell group and international universities.

47% of GCSE and iGCSE grades in 2025 awarded were 9-7 (or A*/A), with 15% at grade 9.

In the same year, we were pleased to report 50% of A-Levels were graded A*/A. Furthermore, 80 % of all A-Level grades were graded at A*-B. In 2024, we were the leading provider of A Levels in Cornwall in terms of pupils achieving AAB or above in two facilitating subjects and in 2025 outcomes in this parameter are even higher.

The Co-Curriculum

We believe that a rich co-curricular life is a key ingredient of an excellent education. Whilst having fun, participating in a wide range of activities, without academic pressures, pupils broaden their horizons and learn a new skill or extend existing skills. This develops confidence, self-esteem, teamwork and independent-thinking, communication skills and social development across all year groups. Our aim is for every Truro School student to leave us with a breadth of knowledge, understanding and a desire to continue with their selected passion. We encourage students to try a variety of activities, to embrace challenge, success and failure in order to grow.

Sport

Truro School has an enviable reputation for the high quality of its sporting provision. Several teams compete nationally and the School hosts elite sportsman in the fields of windsurfing, fencing and sailing to name but a few. All abilities are catered for and every student is encouraged to participate in order to maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Music

Truro School is one of the most busy and vibrant music departments in the country and is home to the Truro Cathedral choristers. Music is evident in all year groups with over 60 concerts each year involving our ensembles, choirs and bands. Tuition is available for numerous instruments including cello, violin, flute, clarinet, saxophone, drums. Over a third of our school undertake instrumental or vocal lessons each week from 30 of the county's top specialist teachers.

Major events each term include the annual Hall for Cornwall Concert, the Junior and Senior Charity Concerts, jazz band and Nine Lessons and Carols.

Drama

Truro School is renowned for the quality of its drama productions which are held in our professional Burrell Theatre. The school runs a number of major productions throughout the year including the annual whole school play or musical, an annual sixth form drama project (including performing at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival every two years) and the junior play in the summer term.

Cornwall

Truro School is located in the county of Cornwall, in south west England. It is surrounded almost exclusively by water which makes it ideal for those who love to spend their downtime at the beach, surfing, sailing, windsurfing or just enjoying a coastal walk. With the nearest beach only a 15-20 minute drive either north or south from Truro School, it is most certainly a life style choice of many. Take a look at www.visitcornwall.com for more information about how to get here, where to stay and what's on.
