Established in 1880, Truro School is Cornwall's leading independent schools for girls and boys aged 3 to 18

From Kieran Topping Chief Operating Officer

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the role of Catering Assistant here at Truro School.

Our School is steeped in 140 years of history and is Cornwall's leading coeducational independent school for children aged 3-18. We are situated over two campuses. The Senior School educates around 840 pupils and is set within 40 acres of sports fields and open spaces overlooking Truro and its iconic Cathedral. The Prep School educates around 300 pupils and is located next to the Royal Cornwall Hospital. We have superb facilities and resources at both sites that support our forward-looking educational ambitions.

Our Cornish setting allows us the privilege of working in a thriving city surrounded by beautiful rural and coastal opportunities. Our educational philosophy is to promote inclusive excellence, academically, pastorally and via a vibrant co-curriculum, for all who join our school.

Underpinned by a welcoming and liberal Methodist ethos, we champion the values of curiosity, courage, creativity, compassion and confidence in all we do. We want all our pupils to be and to become the very best of themselves, embracing the richness of a broad and forward-thinking education. We want our staff to be excited by what we are able to provide for the children under our care.

We are an excellent co-educational school that is large enough to offer many diverse and exciting opportunities, but small enough to know our children and families well. We champion an ambitious, broad and balanced education, and we hope that everybody who joins us will feel an important part of this flourishing community.

For a flavour of life here at Truro School please look at our website www.truroschoo.com and view our virtual tour, where you will see and hear from staff and pupils, and find a glimpse of who we are and where we work.

Job Description: Catering Assistant (Prep)

ACCOUNTABLE TO: Chef Manager and Prep Operations Manager

ROLE OVERVIEW:

To work as part of the Catering Department, assisting with the day-to-day operation of the school kitchen and catering services. The role will include maintaining high standards of cleanliness and hygiene, washing kitchen equipment, assisting with food service and supporting the preparation and serving of school meals and suppers.

The role does not require formal chef experience. Training and guidance will be provided, and food preparation will generally involve simple preparation tasks, following instructions and safely reheating and serving prepared food.

KEY TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- To assist with the smooth running of the school kitchen, meal service and catering functions.
- To maintain high standards of cleanliness, safety and hygiene throughout the kitchen and catering areas, working within Health & Safety and Food Hygiene regulations.
- To assist with the preparation, reheating and serving of food as directed by the Catering Manager. This may include simple food preparation tasks and reheating prepared food for school suppers.
- To assist with the preparation and service of school suppers, including setting up, safely reheating and serving food, clearing away and cleaning the service areas.
- To follow instructions and established procedures for the safe handling, storage, reheating and serving of food.
- To support pupils in accessing a healthy and balanced meal and to assist pupils with identified allergen requirements, following the school's procedures and guidance.
- To load and operate dishwashers as trained, and wash dishes, cutlery, glasses, jugs, serving utensils, containers and other catering equipment.
- To use cleaning chemicals in accordance with COSHH guidelines and wear the relevant personal protective equipment provided by the school.
- To clean, daily, all catering surfaces and floors to the standards laid down by the school and in accordance with cleaning schedules.
- To assist with cleaning the kitchen and dining hall areas after breakfast, lunch and supper services.
- To assist with checking food deliveries and storing food appropriately as directed by the Catering Manager.
- To assist with stock rotation and maintaining tidy and organised storage areas.
- To assist with emptying bins, breaking down boxes and maintaining clean and tidy working areas.

- To assist with the weekly cleaning of fryers, windows, stores and other kitchen equipment as instructed.
- To inform the Catering Manager of any defects in equipment, suspect food or any other concerns relating to food safety.
- To support and guide other team members as and when required.
- To be aware of and adhere to all applicable rules, regulations and legislation, including Health & Safety at Work, Food Hygiene legislation and school rules.
- To maintain confidentiality of information acquired while undertaking duties for the school.
- To undertake any other duties appropriate to the grading of the post as and when required.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Essential Criteria

- Proven record of reliability.
- Evidence of a strong work ethic, for example from references.
- Flexible approach to work and willingness to support the wider Catering Team.
- Ability to undertake the physical and manual aspects of the role, within manual handling guidelines.
- Ability to follow instructions and established procedures.
- Willingness to undertake food hygiene and other relevant training.
- Sympathetic to the Methodist Ethos of the School

Desirable Criteria

- Previous experience in a catering, kitchen, hospitality or similar environment.
- Successful experience in a similar role.
- Knowledge of Health & Safety and Food Hygiene regulations in a catering environment.

ADDITIONAL

- Full training will be provided for relevant equipment and duties as necessary.
- No formal chef qualifications or professional cooking experience are required for this role.
- Truro School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment and behave accordingly. Although there is no direct responsibility for children, this role will involve daily contact with pupils.
- This job description sets out the current duties of the post, which may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the post or the level of responsibility entailed.

Truro School

Our Motto

Esse Quam Videri, meaning 'to be, rather than to seem to be.'

Founded by Methodists in Cornwall in 1880 our School is a welcoming community in which children and adults can flourish, thrive and be happy. They enjoy being and becoming the very best of themselves.

Our Values

From nursery through to Sixth Form, the values our community nurtures are:

- Curiosity to always want to discover and learn more, academically and more widely too.
- Confidence to build resilience by learning from both successes and failures alike.
- Compassion to understand and champion the needs of others, in our community and beyond.
- Creativity to be imaginative in how we express ourselves and approach new challenges.
- Courage to enjoy becoming the very best of who we are, with integrity and ambition.

Our Ambition

To be a community of inclusion and excellence delivering the best educational journey in the South-West.

Our community and its culture reflect our Methodist foundation and our ongoing evolution in an inspiring Cornish setting. In an ever-changing world, we support and challenge young people to thrive – personally, spiritually, academically, socially, and physically. We value our pupils in the diversity of their identities, beliefs, abilities, talents, interests, backgrounds, and needs. The happiness, energy and wellbeing of our community shapes and inspires who we are and who we can become.

Academic Life

Many of our pupils at Truro School celebrate exceptional results as they prepare to move on to the next stage of their lives, education and career. Our Upper Sixth pupils enjoy places at some of the best universities in the world including Oxford, Cambridge, and a range of Russell group and international universities.

47% of GCSE and iGCSE grades in 2025 awarded were 9-7 (or A*/A), with 15% at grade 9.

In the same year, we were pleased to report 50% of A-Levels were graded A*/A. Furthermore, 80 % of all A-Level grades were graded at A*-B. In 2024, we were the leading provider of A Levels in Cornwall in terms of pupils achieving AAB or above in two facilitating subjects and in 2025 outcomes in this parameter are even higher.

The Co-Curriculum

We believe that a rich co-curricular life is a key ingredient of an excellent education. Whilst having fun, participating in a wide range of activities, without academic pressures, pupils broaden their horizons and learn a new skill or extend existing skills. This develops confidence, self-esteem, teamwork and independent-thinking, communication skills and social development across all year groups. Our aim is for every Truro School student to leave us with a breadth of knowledge, understanding and a desire to

Sport

Truro School has an enviable reputation for the high quality of its sporting provision. Several teams compete nationally and the School hosts elite sportsman in the fields of windsurfing, fencing and sailing to name but a few. All abilities are catered for and every student is encouraged to participate in order to maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Music

Truro School is one of the most busy and vibrant music departments in the country and is home to the Truro Cathedral choristers. Music is evident in all year groups with over 60 concerts each year involving our ensembles, choirs and bands. Tuition is available for numerous instruments including cello, violin, flute, clarinet, saxophone, drums. Over a third of our school undertake instrumental or vocal lessons each week from 30 of the county's top specialist teachers.

Major events each term include the annual Hall for Cornwall Concert, the Junior and Senior Charity Concerts, jazz band and Nine Lessons and Carols.

Drama

Truro School is renowned for the quality of its drama productions which are held in our professional Burrell Theatre. The school runs a number of major productions throughout the year including the annual whole school play or musical, an annual sixth form drama project (including performing at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival every two years) and the junior play in the summer term.

Cornwall

Truro School is located in the county of Cornwall, in south west England. It is surrounded almost exclusively by water which makes it ideal for those who love to spend their downtime at the beach, surfing, sailing, windsurfing or just enjoying a coastal walk. With the nearest beach only a 15-20 minute drive either north or south from Truro School, it is most certainly a life style choice of many. Take a
