

Job Description: Maths Teacher (Maternity Cover)

ACCOUNTABLE TO:

Head of Maths

CORE PURPOSE:

We are seeking an inspiring and enthusiastic mathematician to join the thriving Mathematics Department at Truro School. The successful candidate will relish the opportunity to teach Mathematics across multiple key stages and become part of a strong and supportive team of dedicated mathematicians.

KEY TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The successful candidate will contribute to the development of high-quality teaching and learning resources and will play an active role in supporting pupils' academic progress and enjoyment of Mathematics. They will also demonstrate a commitment to enriching pupils' experiences beyond the classroom, helping to foster curiosity, confidence and a genuine enthusiasm for the subject.

This is a fixed-term position commencing in January 2027 covering a maternity. Applications are welcomed from candidates at any stage of their teaching career, including those with limited classroom experience but strong mathematical knowledge and a passion for inspiring young people.

EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS:

Essential

- a good degree in Maths or a related discipline
- ability to teach Maths or Further Maths at A level
- a passion for subject and a good level of subject knowledge
- teaching experience through the age range from Key Stage 3 to 4

- a willingness to engage and support students with Maths beyond the classroom
- a strong work ethic and high levels of personal organisation
- excellent communication skills, both written and verbal
- a willingness to enhance pupil learning via the use of ICT within the classroom, in remote learning and in administration contexts
- support for independent education and specifically the values and ambitions of Truro School
- sensitive to the Methodist ethos of the School

Desirable

- an appropriate teaching qualification such as QTS
- further education beyond degree level in Maths, or related subject
